Read pages 144-169. then prepare a word-processed document containing thoughtful responses to the following questions. This assignment is worth 50 points. Late and/or untyped submissions will not be accepted for any reason.

1. Define the following terms: total fertility rate, replacement fertility, standard of living

2. What are some of the factors that influence population growth?

3. What role does the status of women play in determining population growth rates?

4. Describe the demographic transition concept.

5. Outline the reasons why areas where human population is growing most rapidly are those with the lowest standard of living.