
CHANCE News 8.06
(June 2 1999 to July 10 1999)

Prepared by J. Laurie Snell, Bill Peterson and Charles Grinstead, with help from Fuxing Hou, and Joan Snell.

Please send comments and suggestions for articles to jlsnell@dartmouth.edu.

Back issues of Chance News and other materials for teaching a Chance course are available from the Chance web site:

<http://www.dartmouth.edu/~chance>

Chance News is distributed under the GNU General Public License (so-called 'copyleft'). See the end of the newsletter for details.

Chance News is best read using Courier 12pt font.

The best way to get rich quickly from probability theory is to find someone who knows less about it than you do.

John Haigh

Contents of Chance News 8.06

1. Three Forsooth items.
2. Two case studies from Tufte's latest book.
3. The Wizard of Odds.
4. Study links welfare paydays to rise in drug deaths.
5. How to predict everything.
6. Taking Chances.
7. 9th grade dip on tests baffles educators.
8. False false positive rates.
9. Studies of leisure time point both up and down.
10. The courts vs. scientific certainty.

